Haydn Durant, 1925 - 2011

Haydn died on St Valentine's Day and a Service of Thanksgiving for his life was held in the Parish Church of St Peter and St Paul, Bleadon where he had served for many years.

Hayden was proud of his Welsh homeland and was a dedicated family man who was known as a gifted raconteur. He was a gentle, sincere and faithful server with a strong faith and dedicated supporter of the local Chapter of the Resurrection.

He approached death with confidence being, in the words of Father Philip Stevens (Rector of Bleadon) a "Faithful man of God".

The hymn "Lift high the Cross" was sung at the Service of
